What happens after you submit your application?

1. Your application is forwarded to the Consulate General in Toronto.
2. The Consulate General forwards the complete application to the Danish Immigration Service or Danish Agency for Labour Retention and International Recruitment.
3. After processing the application, the Danish Immigration Service or Danish Agency for Labour Retention and International Recruitment forwards the decision to the Consulate General.
4. If a permit has been granted, the Consulate General will notify you directly. You can then travel to Denmark to have the permit issued. Please note that if you are not visa exempt for Denmark, an entry visa will need to be issued for you. If your application has been refused, the Consulate General will send you a refusal letter.
