FEE STRUCTURE FOR PERMIT APPLICATIONS TO DENMARK

When applying for a Residence Permit to Denmark from abroad, the following fees will be payable:

1. In most cases, a fee will be payable to Danish Immigration Service (DIS) or the Danish Agency for International Recruitment and Integration (SIRI) in Copenhagen for processing your application. The fee amount will vary depending on the type of residence permit you are applying for. This fee is payable by credit card directly to DIS/SIRI through the payment portal of their website (link below). It is important that you pay this fee prior to your appointment at VFS Global. Remember to bring your receipt. For information regarding the applicable fee for your type of residence permit, please visit the DIS/SIRI website and select the category for which you are applying. (Notice applications for a residence permit under the Working Holiday category are exempt from this fee)

2. When submitting an application for a residence permit to Denmark from abroad, there will be an additional fee payable to the Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs. This fee, (DKK 1455 regardless of the type of residence permit you are applying for), is payable directly to the Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs online by credit card via the below link, and should be paid prior to your appointment with VFS Global. Be sure to bring the receipt, which contains an important reference number.

3. VFS Global will charge a service fee of $30 for receiving your application and obtaining your biometric features. In addition, you could be charged an optional courier fee of $45 to have your passport returned directly back to your residence, (no courier fees applicable, if picking up your passport at VFS Global). Other optional fees may apply for photocopy- and printing services, if applicable, as well as optional SMS tracking fees.

Fees payable to VFS Global are paid locally, when you go for your appointment. Acceptable payment methods include VISA, MasterCard and debit. For more information about the VFS service fees, please visit our website:
